

2008 Boot Camp

Unfortunately due to unforeseen circumstances we have had to cancel the upcoming weeked Boot Camp. It was scheduled to run from 30 May - 1 June. We will explore holding it at a later time in the year as suitable. We apologise for any inconvenience this has caused those who already booked in. You will receive a full refund of any payments made. The interest was excellent, with our minimum numbers met. Unfortunately other circumstances have prevented us going ahead at this time. The details of the now proposed Boot Camp for later in 2008 are: DATE: Postponed until later in the year TIME: Depart Fri 2pm, return Sun 4pm COST: $TBA (inc. food, sleeping arrangements, and training) Your main Krav Maga instructors for this event all have military backgrounds, so they really know how to get the most out of you! We are also bringing in some guest instructors from specialist backgrounds within the Australian and British defence forces to assist in making it a truly unique experience! Departure will be from a central location in Brisbane, with transport to and from the Boot Camp facility provided by KMTA. More information to follow shortly, but there will be minimum and maximum numbers! Don't miss out! To register your interest, contact us now! Payment can be made with cash at our regular training classes, cheque/money order, credit card over the phone (+3% surcharge), or direct deposit (preferred).
